

WELSH FIRM AWARDED POSITION IN TOP 25

EXCLUSIVE NATIONAL PRIVATE CLIENT LEAGUE

Law firm Gabb and Co has been voted one of the Top 25 UK Law Firms dealing in private client work. In an exclusive league table published this month by Private Client Practitioner magazine listed the top Welsh law firm amongst the foremost legal practices in the private client world.

The long established law firm, which dates back to 1760, has always had its roots firmly based in Wales with offices in Abergavenny and Crickhowell. The only Welsh law firm to have been awarded a position in this exclusive national listing, Gabb and Co has an exceptionally strong reputation for high quality private client work.

This accolade signifies Gabb and Co as one of the foremost firms for private client work anywhere in the UK.

Partner Steve Meredith heads the private client department which includes nine experienced fee earners who all specialise and deal exclusively in private client work and two highly experienced consultants, Mike Stock and Robin Beale.

According to the firm's Legal 500 entry: "Gabb and Co has a thriving private client department, picking up work from local clients, referral work from Cardiff, and indeed from outside Wales. [Partner and department head] Stephen Meredith is a well-known tax specialist with a good commercial head, and a 'can do' attitude; clients are impressed with his 'knowledge and his dedication to client service'."

Commenting on the prestigious award Steve Meredith said: "We are immensely proud that the high quality hard work and dedication of the private client team at Gabb and Co has received such a high ranking accolade.
